Advance Fashions in Autumn Millinery

We present Monday
200 new Hats at

at $10

These Hats will prove interesting to the vacationist and to the woman who is "tired" of her present summer hat. The styles combine the usual Lansburgh & Brother exclusiveness with very low prices—inducements that have made this the largest millinery institution in Washington.

There are 200 new models from which to choose—smart styles from the youthful off-the-face shapes to matronly looking models. Lyons and Panné Velvet or Panné combined with Duvetyn are the materials used. They are trimmed in various ways with ostrich plumage ornaments, tinsel and embroidery.

Every wanted color at $10.

A specially featured offering of Sample Fall Suits for small women and misses

$55 and $89.50

Distinguished and charming originations in tailored, semi-tailored and elegant fur-trimmed fashions; characterized by custom tailoring, finesse and precision of fit. You will get a good idea of their lines by the models pictured.

Exact reproductions of the most worthy models created for the new season—executed in Veldyne, Duvet de Laine, Velour de Laine, Velour, Tricotine, Poiré Twill and Men's Wear Serge.

Touche of exquisite embroidery, smart braiding, fine cording and fancy stitchery. A greater diversity of styles than you would naturally expect so early in the season.

The low prices we are quoting for these Suits is possible because we purchased the sample line of one of New York's best suit makers. These suits, or rather their exact duplicates, will cost a great deal more later in the season.
